ALLY OF THE GOVERNMENT

Militant Suffragists Very Angry With Bishop of London.

London, January 31.—Militant suffragists are angry with the Bishop of London, the Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, over his report that there was no truth in allegations of extraordinary torture being inflicted on their comrades in Holloway Jail. They accuse the prelate of being an ally of the government. Mrs. Dacre Fox, one of the leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union, wrote him to-day, saying:

"A whitewash brush has been placed in your hand, my lord bishop, by the authorities, that the public shall remain ignorant of the diabolical methods used by the government in its desire to terrorize the militant women. The whole truth of the matter is, you have allowed the government and the prison officials to hoodwink you."

MRS. WILSON INTERESTED

With Others Considers Problem of Women From Segregated District.

Washington, January 31.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, today attended a gathering of women club workers, who talked over the problem of aiding the refugees from the segregated district.

CULLOM'S BODY LIES IN STATE

Funeral Services Will Be Held To-Day In Hall of Representatives.

Springfield, Ill., January 31.—The body of Shelby M. Cullom to-day lay in state here in the Capitol, which was held during his administration as Governor. From 1 o'clock to 6 o'clock this afternoon two intermittent lines filed past, taking a last look at the last American statesman of Lincoln's day. Owing to the depth of snow, the military guard did not escort the bier from the home to the Statehouse. The horse was followed by two closed carriages, bearing the ten pallbearers, and a third vehicle with the floral tributes. The coffin was placed on a platform draped with the national colors. At the foot of the coffin stood the bronze figure of a woman, "Illinois Welcoming the World." On this was placed the great wreath of orchids presented by members of the Lincoln Memorial Commission. On the bier was President Wilson's wreath.

Funeral services will be held to-morrow in the hall of Representatives. Eulogies will be pronounced by Governor Dumm, Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman and Clinton C. Conkling, a pioneer lawyer of this city.

VIRGINIA HAS NO ADJUTANT-GENERAL

The term of Adjutant-General W. W. Sale expired at 12 o'clock last night. Under the law he goes out with the Governor by whom he was appointed, and as Governor Stuart has announced no appointments, the office to-day is without an official head. It would be a very simple matter, however, for the Governor to detail some officer of the militia to act as Adjutant-General should an emergency arise, so the fact that there is no officer in charge is of no great importance.

Military people looked up the law yesterday, and found that General Sale's term ended with that of Governor Mann's. Two years ago the General Assembly in revising the militia laws put in a provision by which the Governor was restricted in filling that office. The new law says that no man shall be eligible unless he has served three years in the service, although there was a provision that this should not apply to the Adjutant-General then in office, who is eligible for re-appointment.

While friends of candidates for this and other offices within the gift of Governor Stuart have been anxious to see something done, the Governor has refused to discuss his plans with the body, and long ago the politicians realized that no announcement would be made until after the public inauguration.

FRIEZE IN CAPITOL DOME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Washington, January 31.—Representative Smith, of Idaho, provided to-day by resolution carrying $10,000, that the Library of Congress, the House and House shall put in the dome of the Capitol a frieze representing the peace meeting of Grant and Lee at Appomattox, and the opening of the Panama Canal.

KIDNEYS OFTEN OVERWORKED

When Discased the Whole System Becomes Deranged.

The bowels, the kidneys, the skin and the lungs carry off the waste material from the human body. The bowels remove the non-nutritive material after digestion is completed, and the lungs carry off the carbonic acid gas. The skin, through its pores, gives exit to water, the saline matter and some gaseous exhalations. To the kidneys, which are a marvelous combination of delicately constructed tubules, is given the most delicate task of all, in the work of removing the waste matter from the blood, and any failure in the normal work of these organs means a retention in the system of poisonous and acid substances that usually produce numerous disorders and end in uramic poisoning or heart failure. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy is one of the world's greatest medicines for the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood. It will help you from the very first. It repairs the tissues, soothes inflammation and irritation, awakens the torpid liver, aids digestion, stimulates the enfeebled organs and heals at the same time. Tried and tested for 37 years and never found wanting, Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has brought perfect health to thousands, and is bound to do you good. At all druggists in 50c and $1.00 bottles—every bottle guaranteed. A free sample if you write Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 285, Rochester, N. Y.

END OF HEARING IN SPEER INQUIRY

"midnight order," appointing receivers for the corporation.

"The order was not issued at midnight," declared Judge Speer. "That order saved $50,000,000 of property from being confiscated by Pat Calhoun and his associates, who were sweeping it into the maelstrom of the tottering Richmond and Danville Railroad. My ruling in that case has been cited and approved by the Supreme Court of the United States."

Open Court 200 Days a Year.

Reaching the court, that he was absent from his district a longer portion of each year than the law prescribed, Judge Speer said he held open court on an average of 200 days a year, and was entitled to a vacation. He added that he sometimes went to North Carolina, because of hay fever, from which he suffered.

In explanation of the complaint made by several witnesses that the money derived from the sale of the H&D estate in Macon had been deposited in a Macon bank, of which his brother-in-law, Cecil Morgan, is president, Judge Speer said:

"This bank at the time was appointed receiver of the court, the only general depository in Macon. It was not customary for banks to pay interest on court registry funds."

Judge Speer was cross-examined by Chairman Webb, of the congressional committee. The jurist admitted having traveled on railroad passes before the passage of the Hepburn act. "I rode free when everybody else rode free," said the witness.

The jurist also admitted that he rode free on the General Railroad while it was in the hands of receivers. "There has been a great change in sentiment since these days," remarked Judge Speer, "and I have never violated the law against free passage."

Webb stated that his administration had been meretricious, and that his kindness had been misconstrued by some as arbitrariness.

Asked About Fees.

Referring to a schedule, Chairman Webb questioned Judge Speer in regard to various fees which went to the firm of Talley & Heyward, from litigation in the jurist's court. Judge Speer declared that Talley & Heyward had explained the dissolution of their firm on the ground that he had placed so many restrictions upon them because of his kinship to Heyward. The witness denied having had anything to do with the partnership of the law firm of Talley & Heyward.

Judge Speer was then asked to explain the breach between himself and District Attorney Akerman. "Our differences," said the witness, "grew out of our diverging views on questions involving the policy of law and principles of morality, upon which the welfare of the people depended. In the first place, I was anxious to enforce the revenue laws, so as to come to aid of the people of the South in enforcing their prohibition laws."

"Mr. Akerman allied himself with liquor interests, and insisted that I not prosecute certain liquor cases. I insisted this was obligatory upon me, because a compromise on these cases had been effected between the collector of internal revenue and the attorney-general."

Explains Loan.

Judge Speer also explained the loan made to him several years ago by H. M. King, former clerk of the United States Court, at Savannah. "I had just come out of politics—four years in Congress," he testified, "and I was badly in debt. Mr. King sent me word he had some money, which he would lend me at a low rate of interest. I accepted and gave my note. Later when Mr. King, who had become wealthy, made demands for payment of the note I paid it promptly. This money did not, of course, come from the registry of the court."

WOMEN TO VISIT WILSON

Expect to Interview President On Suffrage Question.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—New York, January 31.—More than 100 women will start to-morrow morning for Washington, where they expect to interview President Wilson on the suffrage question.

Monday morning, after a mass-meeting in the Public Library, the women, carrying union labor and suffrage banners, will march to the White House.

NO EFFORT TO FIND FOSTER

Father Wanted to Have Him Committed to Sanatorium.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Stamford, Conn., January 31.—The facts concerning the placing of Joel M. Foster, the wealthy chicken farmer of Browns Mills, N. J., who eloped with Della Bradley to Mobile, Ala., recently, in Dr. A. J. Givens' sanatorium here, were made known for the first time to-day in a statement made by Judge N. C. Downs. He said:

"Foster's father, Thomas Foster, of Scranon, Pa., retained me about ten days ago to represent him in proceedings to have his son committed to the sanatorium. After investigating I found that Foster was suffering from incipient paresis, and made an application to have Foster examined for this reason that he was so anxious to get away. So far as I know no effort is being made to find Foster, the attendant who aided in the escape."

Drastic Cut in Steerage Rates.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—New York, January 31.—A drastic cut in steerage rates from New York and Boston to Hamburg, Bremen, Antwerp and Rotterdam, will be made on Monday by every transatlantic steamship company operating out of these ports. This will be the first definite step taken by the North Atlantic conference to meet the opposition of the Hamburg-American Line.

JAPANESE DO NOT WANT WAR

Returned Missionary Says Feeling for Americans is Friendly.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Washington, January 31.—Dr. Sydney L. Gulick, for many years an American missionary in Japan, to-day told the Senate Committee on Immigration that the feeling for Americans in Japan was friendly. He deplored sensational stories to the contrary printed in this country.

"The trouble is," said Dr. Gulick, "that Americans do not understand the Japanese viewpoint. They do not want war with this country. War is the last thing they are thinking of. They are a very sensitive people, and they do not relish the idea that they should be singled out for exclusion."

STOPPED HIS DRINKING

Her Husband Over
Ten Years Ago

SHE WILL GLADLY TELL YOU HOW FREE

Write to Her Today. Send No
Money. She Has Nothing
To Sell

For over 20 years Jas. Anderson of Hillburn, N. Y., was a confirmed drunkard. His case was about as bad as it could be, but a little over ten years ago his devoted wife, after years of trying, finally succeeded in stopping his drinking entirely.

Write to this woman if you have a relative or friend who drinks. Not only did she save Mr. Anderson but she stopped the drinking of her brother and several of her neighbors as well. All this she accomplished with a simple home remedy which any one can get and use. And she now desires to tell every man and woman who has a relative or friend who drinks, just what it is.

It can be given secretly if desired and every reader of this notice who is interested in curing a dear one of drinking should write to Mrs. Anderson at once. Her reply will come by return mail in a sealed envelope. She does this gladly, in hopes that others will be benefited as she was. One thing she asks however, and that is that you do not send money for she has nothing to sell. Her complete address is 140 Hill Ave., Hillburn, N. Y.

NOTE: This offer should be accepted at once by all who have dear ones who drink. In fact, every one who has to contend in any way with drunkenness should know about it. Therefore, if you do not write Mrs. Anderson yourself CUT THIS NOTICE OUT and mail it to a friend who could use her advice. And even though you do answer it, MAIL IT TO SOMEONE ELSE who you think would like to know what Mrs. Anderson used. In other words, let this notice reach as many as possible for Mrs. Anderson will reply to every letter, no matter how many she receives.
